A Strange Way to Grow

Guiding Thoughts
All people are looking to find happiness, identity, security and meaning in life. Where do people seek to find these things? How do those who follow Christ differ from others in this?

WELCOME

Hymn: 744 Amazing Grace

1 Amazing grace—how sweet the sound—That saved a wretch like me!
2 The Lord has promised good to me, His Word my hope secures;
3 Through man’s dangers, toils, and snares I have already come;
4 Yes, when this flesh and heart shall fail And mortal life shall cease, Amazing grace shall shining as the sun,
5 When we’ve been there ten thousand years, Bright now am found, Was blind but now I see!

Psalm 121

I lift up my eyes to the mountains.
Where does my help come from?
MY HELP COMES FROM THE LORD,
THE MAKER OF HEAVEN AND EARTH.

He will not let your foot stumble.
HE WHO WATCHES OVER YOU WILL NOT SLUMBER.

Yes, he who watches over Israel will not slumber.
HE WILL NOT SLEEP.

The Lord watches over you.
The Lord is your shade at your right hand.
THE SUN WILL NOT STRIKE YOU BY DAY,
NOR THE MOON BY NIGHT.

The Lord will watch to keep you from all harm.
HE WILL WATCH OVER YOUR LIFE.

The Lord will watch over your going and your coming FROM NOW TO ETERNITY.
GLORY BE TO THE FATHER AND TO THE SON AND TO THE HOLY SPIRIT; AS IT WAS IN THE BEGINNING, IS NOW
AND WILL BE FOREVER. AMEN.

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-11
Moses came and reported to the people all the words of the Lord and all the ordinances. Then all the people answered with one voice and said, “All the words which the Lord has spoken we will do.” 4 Moses wrote down all the words of the Lord.
He got up early in the morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain. He set up twelve memorial stones for the twelve tribes of Israel. 5 He sent young Israelite men, who offered whole burnt offerings and sacrificed fellowship offerings of cattle to the Lord. 6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and he splashed half of the blood on the altar. 7 He took the Book of the Covenant and read it out loud to the people and they said, “All that the Lord has spoken we will do. We will obey.”

8 Moses took the blood and splashed it on the people. He said, “Look, here is the blood of the covenant, which the Lord made with you by means of all these words.”
9 Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up. 10 They saw the God of Israel. Under his feet they saw what looked like a pavement of sapphire 9 as clear as the sky. 11 The Lord did not lay his hand on the dignitaries of the people of Israel. They gazed at God, and they ate and drank.

Gospel Reading: John 12:20-26
Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the Festival. 21 They came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, “Sir, we want to see Jesus.” 22 Philip went to tell Andrew. Andrew came with Philip and told Jesus.

23 Jesus answered them, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. 24 Amen, Amen, I tell you: Unless a kernel of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it continues to be one kernel. But if it dies, it produces much grain. 25 Anyone who loves his life destroys it. And the one who hates his life in this world will hold on to it for eternal life. 26 If anyone serves me, let him follow me. And where I am, there my servant will be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

627 Jesus Christ, Our Blessed Savior (verses 1-6)

1 Jesus Christ, our blessed Savior, Turned away God's wrath for ever; By His bitter grief and woe He saved us from the evil foe.
2 As His pledge of love unyielding, He, this precious food supplying, Gives His body with the bread, And with the wine the blood He shed.
3 Jesus here Himself is sharing; Heed then how you are preparing, For if you do not believe, His judgment then you shall receive.
4 Praise the Father, who from heaven To His own this food has given, Who, to mend what we have done, Gave in to death His only Son.

5 Firmly hold with faith unshaken That this food is to be taken By the sick who are distressed, By hearts that long for peace and rest.

6 Agony and bitter labor Were the cost of God's high favor; Do not come if you suppose You need not Him who died and rose.

Collect for the Word

Blessed Lord, You have caused all Holy Scriptures to be written for our learning. Grant that we may so hear them, read, mark, learn, and take them to heart that, by the patience and comfort of Your holy Word, we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Morning Prayer

I thank You, my heavenly Father, through Jesus Christ, Your dear Son, that You have kept me this night from all harm and danger; and I pray that You would keep me this day also from sin and every evil, that all my doings and life may please You. For into Your hands I commend myself, my body and soul, and all things. Let Your holy angel be with me, that the evil foe may have no power over me.

The almighty and merciful Lord, the Father, the Son and The Holy Spirit, bless and preserve you.

AMEN.

CLOSING HYMN
421 Jesus, Grant That Balm and Healing

Text and tune: Public domain

1 Jesus, grant that balm and healing In Your holy wounds I find, Every hour that I am feeling Pains of bodily and of mind. Should some evil thought within
2 Should some lust or sharp temptation Fascinate my every road, With seductive, sinful vices, Let me courage I shall find. Or should Satan press me hard, weigh the awful load You were willing to endure.
3 If the world my heart entices With the broad and new life to my soul. Yes, Your comfort renders sweet
4 Ev’ry wound that pains or grieves me By Your wounds, Lord, crushed it in the dust. Savior, let Your agony
5 O my God, my rock and tower, Grant that in Your death I trust, Knowing death has lost its power Since You temptation, Calm in prayer and meditation.
